The artist will provide an initial sketch / drawing from a brief found on the website forum and upon confirmation from the buyer will then produce a more detailed drawing in accordance with the style of art required. Conflicting kingdoms will then accept, decline or ask for any alterations. Upon declining artwork, it will be deleted and never used, artists will not get paid anything and keep full rights to their work.
Upon acceptance, we will notify that the artwork is finished and will require you to send in the full file with all layers, which you can do by email or by posting it.
Once the artwork has reached us and is satisfactory, Conflicting Kingdoms will then pay 10% of the agreed capped price for the artwork.
Artwork Rates:
Booster Illustrators Cap per artwork is £50
Deck Illustrators Cap per artwork is £100

Once the 10% fee has been paid Conflicting Kingdoms will have full rights to the artwork, we may use it and or change it in any way. Where possible we will display artist name and signature.
Artists will still hold some rights to their artwork at this stage, the work may be displayed on forums, websites or used in portfolios and evidence of work but must display reference to Conflicting Kingdoms, links etc.

Artists must not sell the artwork in any shape or format unless agreed with Conflicting Kingdoms in writing. The artist may be use the artwork to generate income by way of promotional material such as T-shirts but again, written permission must be provided by Conflicting Kingdoms and there must be reference to Conflicting Kingdoms. We encourage artists to do this as it will promote the Conflicting Kingdoms brand and create awareness so please speak to us if you have any ideas regarding these matters

The remaining 90% of the capped fee will be paid to artists upon sales. Every artist will be paid up to their full cap before a total of 30,000 booster packs have been sold, deck artists and those that have produced the most images will receive payment first.

When artists have received the full 100% capped fee, all artwork is owned 100% by Conflicting Kingdoms and may not be used in anyway by the artist unless agreed with Conflicting Kingdoms. Under no circumstances will any other payment be made to the artist.

No drawings will be made by directors or company owners until all artists are paid their capped fees in full.
